Despite popular opinion, the joys of the gay lifestyle need not stop at age 40 or 60 or even 80. Tri-State Prime Timers is part of a worldwide organization that provides mature gay and bisexual men, and their younger adult friends, with opportunities to enjoy social, educational, and recreational activities in a supportive atmosphere.

Tri-State Prime Timers has over 230 members, and an average of 100 attend our social gatherings on the second Sunday of each month. Those meetings are held at area restaurants or meeting facilities. They usually begin with a social hour at 3pm, an informational meeting at 5pm and dinner at 5:30pm. A meeting fee of $14 is collected from each attendee to help cover expenses.

In addition to the monthly meetings, there are various smaller interest groups which usually have their own monthly or even weekly gathering. For example, there are groups devoted to gardening, gay literature, card playing, cooking, travel, and cinema. A monthly newsletter helps keep us all in touch.

Prime Timers come from all walks of life--every race and every social and economic level. Some are out, some are not. They involve themselves in their community with volunteerism, politics, gay issues, arts, entertainment, and every other facet of healthy living. They are fathers and caregivers. They are businessmen and entrepreneurs. They are workers and they are retired. Some are always on the go, and some enjoy the quiet company of others at home.

But one thing is true of all Prime Timers: they enjoy the opportunities and friendships that develop with other Prime Timers in the Tri-State area and throughout the world. Time with friends is always "prime time."
